3. Public Comment. None.

4. For Discussion and Possible Action: Approval of minutes from the October 20, 2016, meeting. Attachment One (1),

Member Patty Cafferata ("Cafferata") commented that the name "Cory" should be inserted before the name "Hernandez" to distinguish between Christine Hernandez and Cory Hernandez on the top of page 13.

MOTION by Member Cafferata, with a second by Member Suzanne Ramos ("Ramos"), to approve the minutes as corrected. The motion carried with Messrs. Jackson, Bancroft, Mesdames Meuschke and Yoxsimer abstaining.

5. For Discussion and Possible Action: NRS 228.490(2)(a). Review presented by Ombudsman Arlene Rivera ("Rivera") in regards to the rural judges' responses to survey on domestic violence resources.

Member Cafferata commented that the problem with the rurals is the travel distance.

Attorney General Adam Paul Laxalt, Chairman ("Chairman"), stated that we could find the correct training for them.

Member Megan Jordan ("Jordan") stated there are issues with the survivors and witnesses showing up to court. We have done training for process servers and have had a great deal of success.

Member Mark Jackson ("Jackson") stated that he has a full-time investigator on staff that is grant funded. He stated that his Department is lacking resources to do a good job, and his concern is that judges do not see the need for every community to have a Memorandum of Understanding for community service. There are never enough domestic violence community services; i.e., certified counselors. He was of the opinion that the domestic violence victims should not be jailed for refusing to testify against perpetrators.

Member Elyne Greene ("Greene") stated if they cannot be located, the District Attorney is not going to have any more success in serving them. She also agreed with Member Jackson.

Chairman Laxalt introduced Agenda Items Nos. 6 and 7, simultaneously.

6. For Discussion and Possible Action: NRS 228.490(2)(b). Nevada Council for the Prevention of Domestic Violence (NCPDV) to make findings and recommendations based on judge's responses which will be included in the 2017 Biennial Legislative Report. Attachment 2
7. For Discussion and Possible Action: (NRS 228.450(1)(a). Review presented by Rivera regarding information included in reports by the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History. NCPDV to comment on further findings and recommendations to be included in the 2017 Biennial Legislative Report. Attachment 3

Member Christine Jones Brady ("Brady") recommended that we do a bullet point summary and present it to the Legislature Counsel. Member Brady commended that she would like to have the rurals receive more money. She questioned why the domestic violence cards were given to offenders. They are normally intended for the victim.

Member Meuschke stated she would like someone from public safety come talk to the Committee.

Chairman Laxalt suggested that the group send a note to Arlene if they have specific questions for the Legislature.

Ombudsman Rivera commented she would review what the Nevada Council for the Prevention of Domestic Violence had done for the last two years; the judge's responses; the 2017 objectives for the committee, which are due January 20th; proposed legislative issues; and, the judge's training. She also commented that they are moving forward with merging the committees.

Members Brady and Meuschke volunteered to help Rivera.

Member Meuschke requested a report or summary on what has transpired in the last two years.

Chairman Laxalt commented that the scholarships will be coming out in February and suggested that the Committee send an email to Arlene on scholarships they were interested in pursuing.

Member Meuschke stated that she received five (5) $1,000 grant Michael Bolton scholarships for survivors. She also discussed the Ombudsman position and the role the position plays.

Rivera stated that the next VINE committee meeting would take place on January 5, 2017.

8. For Discussion: Latest NCPDV Financial Report presented by Treasurer Suzanne Ramos. Attachment 4

Member Ramos commented that we were under budget. Member Meuschke questioned what happened if we don't spend the money; do we lose it. Rivera replied she did not know but would look into it and get back to the committee

Member Ramos stated that if the court fees are not paid, we do not get the money. Member Meuschke requested a copy of the report in February on collections instead of revenue.

9. Council Member Comments.

Member Greene stated that there would be a Sex Trafficking meeting on February 13, 2017. There will be representatives from the state, and it will be held at Metro's headquarters.

Member Leisa Moseley suggested that when we think of the Committee's name, let's think of the ways we can prevent domestic violence. Perpetrators have multiple victims. She asked the Committee to think of things they could do to reduce domestic violence, and suggested they think of ways in which to accomplish this task. Member Brady volunteered to work with her on this issue.

Member Cory Hernandez stated that they had a great turn out for the Bride's March parade. She commented that people either supported it or did not.

Member Meuschke stated that the Nevada Network on Domestic Violence would close on December 31st and reopen on January 31st. She invited everyone to join.

10. Establish dates for 2017 meetings and possible topics for discussion.

Connect to Victims with VINE.

Join the VINE Service Provider Directory

What is VINE?

VINE® (Victim Information and Notification Everyday) is a solution, developed by Appriss, that provides victims of crime with access to timely and reliable offender custody information.

Offering peace of mind, this service lets victims call a toll-free number, visit www.vinelink.com, or use the VINEmobile™ app to anonymously check on an offender's custody status. Victims can also register to receive automated notifications about changes in status via phone, email, or text. VINE is currently provided to victims as a free service in 48 states.

The Future of VINE

VINE has been serving victims since 1994. Since then, technology has advanced by leaps and bounds. With the prevalence of mobile application technology, there is a prime opportunity to enhance and modernize the current VINE service.

Beginning in Spring 2017, Appriss will be rolling out a greatly enhanced version of VINE in self-selected states. The new VINE will leverage technology to enhance the user experience and expand access to services for victims of crime.

Reach More Victims with the VINE Service Provider Directory

Today, there is currently no central website or mobile application that lists services for all types of crime. Victims are vastly underserved. In fact, fewer than one in ten victims of serious violent crime receive assistance from a victim service agency. Appriss intends to positively impact this statistic by offering VINE users access to a national service provider directory within the VINE application.

By joining the VINE Service Provider Directory, your organization can connect to VINE users nationwide. VINE's reach is broad. In 2015: VINE users conducted >46M offender searches; VINE delivered >40M notifications; and >20M users accessed VINE from a desktop or mobile device.

1 safety of any person who reports child abuse or neglect and to

24 evidence in support of the petition. If the court determines that there 25 is a reasonable question of fact as to whether the report was made in 26 bad faith or with malicious intent and that the disclosure of the 27 identity of the person who made the report would not be likely to 28 endanger the life or safety of the person who made the report, the 29 court shall provide a copy of the information to the petitioner and 30 the original information is subject to discovery in a subsequent civil 31 action regarding the making of the report.

Overview of the Nevada Supreme Court Uniform System of Judicial Records

Overview of Nevada's Uniform System of Judicial Records.

1. Develop a basic understanding of the Nevada Judiciary and the Uniform System of Judicial Records (USJR).
2. Develop an understanding of how criminal domestic violence and TPO cases are measured as they flow through the judicial system.
3. Learn units of count and the meaning of some data elements.
4. Learn about Nevada Supreme Court efforts to ensure data integrity.

NEVADA'S COURT MODEL AND STRUCTURE

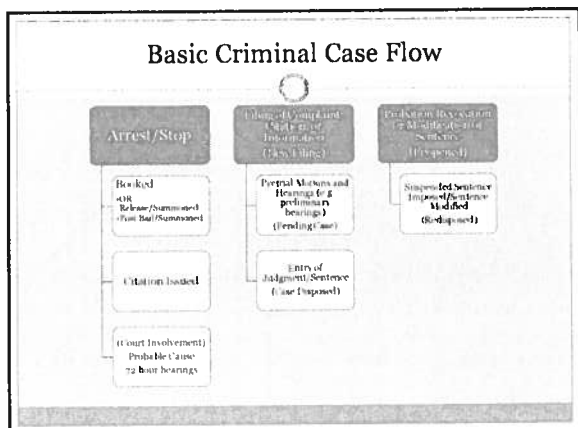

Understanding The Nevada Statistical Model

- The Nevada Judiciary began collecting aggregate caseload statistics in 1999. From 2008-14, improvements were made to the statistical model to make them consistent with National Center for State Courts detailed caseload standards.
- Understanding differences with court statistics.
 - Courts are neutral arbiters, that do not decide which cases are filed with the court, or which charges are brought to the court. They only decide the outcome based upon the facts presented.
 - Law Enforcement, District Attorneys, and City Attorneys decide what cases and charges are filed.
 - In TPO matters, the court does not decide when or who should file an application or petition for protection. They only decide whether, based upon the facts presented, a TPO should be granted or denied.
 - DPS only receives information on granted TPO's.

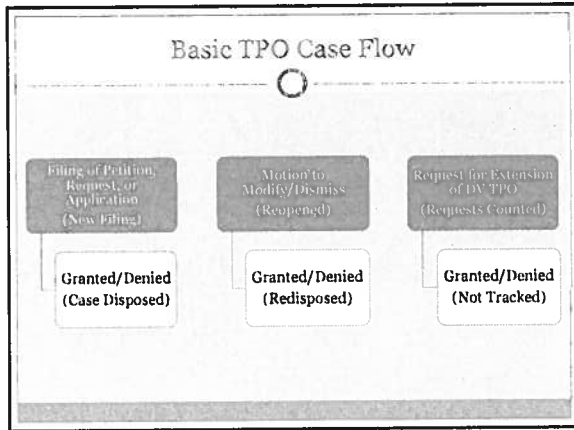

Criminal Caseflow and USJR Unit of Counts

- Criminal cases are counted by defendant upon the filing of a complaint, citation, or information from the prosecutor. The case type is determined by the most significant charge. Arrest and amended charges are not counted.
- Criminal cases are disposed at the entry of judgment/sentencing of a defendant.
- Criminal cases may be readdressed after the entry of judgment/sentencing of a defendant for probation violations, modifications of sentence, or cases returned on appeal.
- Once the reason for reopening a criminal case is resolved, the case is reclosed (disposed).

Temporary Protection Order Caseflow and Unit of Count

- TPO cases are counted at the filing of petition or application.
- TPO cases are disposed at the entry of judgment (granting or denying) of the request for a TPO.
- TPO cases may be reopened for modifications of the original 30 day order.
- Extended TPO requests are also captured upon request. No data is tracked for outcomes of requests for extended TPO.

Nevada Judiciary Data Integrity

- The Nevada Supreme Court issued Administrative Docket Order 398 in 2015, that directs the AOC to:
 - Evaluate and recommend improvements or procedures to produce accurate statistics in existing systems.
 - Provide assistance for courts implementing new systems with procedures necessary to accurately collect USJR statistics.
- The AOC conducts reviews of new court systems and 6-month reviews of caseload reports for quality assurance.
- As part of a non-unified judiciary, AOC recommends improvements and procedures with minimal enforcement authority.
