

2020 Services-Training-Officers-Prosecutors (STOP) and Sexual Assault Services Program (SASP) Solicitation

Additional Questions and Answers

Q1. Is there a cap to the amount of funding we can request?

A1. There is no cap this year. However, please keep in mind the State of Nevada anticipates receiving level funding as last year.

Q2. Does this year's application have a chart on Sexual Assault Services? Section E?

A2. Yes, this year's STOP-SASP solicitation includes questions on Sexual Assault Services. This can be found on page 20 of the solicitation.

Q3. In one place the deadline for STOP SASP is April 17 - in another it is April 27 - which is correct?

A3. The STOP-SASP solicitation originally had a deadline of April 13, 2020. We have extended the deadline by 2 weeks and the updated deadline is April 27, 2020.

Q4. We would like to know if it's feasible or okay to request admin/operation expenses with the grant to help assist the operations of the program?

A4. Yes, admin/operating expenses can be included in the grant application.

Q5. The standard assurances form says it "Expires 05/31/2019" at the top. Is this the one you would like us to use?

A5. We contacted the Feds and asked for an updated version but we haven't gotten it yet. In the meantime, we are asking applicants to use the form even though it has a date that has passed.

Q6. Is providing clients with one-time emergency rental assistance fundable under STOP purpose area 11?

A6. Rental assistance would be fundable under purpose area #11, as it is considered a core victim service. But the rental assistance must be directly tied to the domestic and/or sexual violence. It cannot be rental assistance due to financial difficulties.

Q7. Do we have to accept an award/funding we applied for? Would we be penalized?

A7. No, you don't have to accept an award if one is offered. There also wouldn't be a penalty if an award was offered but not accepted. We understand that circumstances may change from the time an application is submitted to the time when offers are made.
