AGENDA

Please Note: The Committee on Domestic Violence (CDV) may (1) address agenda items out of order to accommodate persons appearing before the CDV or to aid the efficiency or effectiveness of the meeting; (2) Combine items for consideration by the public body; and (3) pull or remove items from the agenda at any time. The CDV may convene in closed session to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of a person.

Public comment is welcomed by the CDV, but at the discretion of the chair, may be limited to five minutes per person. A public comment time will be available before any action items are heard by the public body and then once again prior to adjournment of the meeting. The Chair may allow additional time to be given to a speaker as time allows and in his/her sole discretion. Prior to the commencement and conclusions of a contested case or a quasi-judicial proceeding that may affect the due process rights of an individual the board may refuse to consider public comment.
