State of Nevada Committee on Domestic Violence Batterers Treatment Certification Committee

The purpose of the Committee is to ensure batterer accountability and victim safety by:

-  Reviewing, monitoring, and certifying batterers treatment programs in the State of Nevada.
-  Adopting regulations governing batterers treatment programs.
-  Making recommendations to POST regarding domestic violence related training for peace officers.

The Nevada Committee on Domestic Violence

 The Committee on Domestic Violence (CDV) certifies, reviews and monitors batterers treatment programs for the State of Nevada in accordance with NRS 228.470 and NAC Chapter 228.

 The CDV is housed within the Attorney General's Office, and all members are appointed by the Attorney General.

 The CDV meets at least quarterly and maintains an open meeting policy. Public participation at meetings is welcome and appreciated. For a list of meeting agendas and minutes visit the Committee online at:

www.cdv.state.nv.us

 The following subcommittees were formed by the CDV and meet regularly to address the needs of the Committee.

Rural Issues Subcommittee

Created to address the lack of batterers treatment in rural Nevada.

Distance Learning Subcommittee

Created to review policies and procedures for review of on-line continuing education courses.

 Application forms for initial licensing, renewal of licensure, and continuing education credits are available on-line in writable PDF format.

 Complaint forms are also available on the website should any matters involving certified programs need to be brought to the attention of the Committee.
