

Attachment Six (6)

Committee on Domestic Violence Agenda
July 17, 2019

Contents: NDOC Notifications

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

V.I.N.E. and Department of Corrections Notifications

SERVICE DESCRIPTION	V.I.N.E.	D.O.C. VICTIM SERVICES
Confidential Registration	X	X
Notifies of release or escape from custody	X	X
Notifies of move to transitional housing facility or residential confinement	X	X
Messages sent via automated text, phone call or e-mail	X
Available to general public	X
Notifies of movements between prison facilities	X
Includes information from city/county jails, the Department of Corrections and the Division of Parole and Probation	X
Notifications sent via U.S.P.S. mail		X
Notifications only available for victims or parties supporting the victim		X
Detailed notifications including explanation of circumstances		X
Notifications include instructions to submit victim input when appropriate		X
Notification that an offender is being considered for residential confinement		X
Notification of transfers out of state		X
Notifications include Federal hold information including immigration holds		X
Personal assistance with individual cases by phone available		X
Referrals to appropriate services available		X

Registration Information

To register for V.I.N.E. notifications, visit <https://vinelink.vineapps.com/login/NV> or call (888) 268-8463.

To register for notifications from the Department of Corrections (D.O.C.), fill out and submit a Victim Notification Request Form available at <http://doc.nv.gov/>

- Click on “Victims’ Info”
- Click on “Forms”
- Click on “Victim Notification Request form-Department of Corrections”
- Fill out the form and submit according to directions at top of page

*There is an additional form available under the Department of Corrections notification form for post-conviction Court proceedings notifications from the Office of the Attorney General. You may fill out and submit the form to the Office of the Attorney General if you wish to receive notifications from that office.