

Boy Scouts Peace Begins at Home Project Helpful Websites for Group Leaders

Please Note: The websites listed below are great resources for all interested parties; however, because of the nature of this topic, some portions of the websites may contain materials that are disturbing and/or unsuitable for children. Therefore, leaders are advised to navigate these sites prior to introducing them to his/her troop/group; it is also advisable to have an adult present while kids of any level are viewing these websites.

Nevada-Specific Sites:

Nevada Network Against Domestic Violence

www.nnadv.org

Nevada Office of the Attorney General Domestic Violence

<http://ag.state.nv.us>

Nevada Legislature

<http://www.leg.state.nv.us/>

National Sites:

Family Violence Prevention Fund

www.endabuse.org

- From this home page, you can select the action center to learn more about the following campaigns: "Coaching Boys into Men"; "That's Not Cool" (www.thatsnotcool.com); and "Give Respect" (www.giverespect.org)
- Also from the home page, you can learn more about recent statistics on children/teens relating to domestic violence and key resources

National Coalition Against Domestic Violence

<http://ncadv.org/>

- Visit this website for ideas hosting educational events, fact sheets, and research materials

National Domestic Violence Hotline

<http://www.ndvh.org/>

National Network to End Domestic Violence

<http://www.nnedv.org>

- For responses to frequently asked questions about domestic violence, visit <http://www.nnedv.org/resources/stats/faqaboutdv.html>
- For information on technology use and safety including social networking and privacy, privacy when posting information online, and high tech stalking , visit <http://www.nnedv.org/internetsafety.html>

National Teen Dating Abuse Helpline

<http://loveisrespect.org/>

- Visit this interactive website that offers a “live” chat on healthy relationships, resources for getting help and how to get involved in preventing dating violence

National Resource Center on Domestic Violence
<http://www.nrcdv.org/>

- Visit this website for information on activities to celebrate Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October. This month is a time to celebrate the survivors of domestic violence and pay tribute to the victims who have lost their lives as a result of domestic violence.

Netsmartz – Internet Safety
<http://www.netsmartz.org/index.aspx>

White Ribbon Campaign
http://whiteribbon.ca/about_us/