The Position

Criminal Investigators in the Attorney General's Investigations Division perform criminal investigations involving violations of federal and/or State laws pertaining to a specific program or regulatory area which includes, but is not limited to, Medicaid fraud, workers' compensation fraud, consumer protection, public integrity, human trafficking, computer forensics, missing children, financial fraud, alleged criminal offenses committed by State officers or employees, and all types of conflict of interest cases submitted by outside agencies, along with participating in multi-jurisdictional task forces comprised of officers from federal, State and local enforcement agencies. The investigative process is initiated following a formal request for service, upon receipt of a complaint from the public, or as a coordinated effort with federal, State or local law enforcement and criminal justice agencies.

Incumbents possess a degree of knowledge and proficiency sufficient to perform work independently with little or no additional training.

THIS RECRUITMENT MAY CLOSE WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE DEPENDING ON THE AMOUNT OF APPLICATIONS RECEIVED. APPLICANTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO APPLY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Under direct and general supervision, applicants must have the ability to effectively investigate cases in a timely manner. Applicants are expected to conduct and coordinate investigations to include interview and interrogation of witnesses, victims and suspects, as well as, other law enforcement or State agency sources to obtain necessary information. Applicants must be able prepare highly detailed reports and affidavits in the approved Office of the Attorney General format using concise, logical, grammatically correct language. Applicants must have the ability to conduct field activities, including arrests, search warrants and surveillance. A heavy workload coupled with daily office and administrative deadlines make it essential for the applicant to be dependable and adaptable to change. Applicants must have the ability to conduct complex or difficult investigative assignments that may involve multiple criminal violations or suspects. Spanish speaking is preferred but not required.
