Attorney General Ford Announces Sentencing of Las Vegas Woman and Behavioral Health Company for Medicaid Fraud

Las Vegas, NV – Today, Nevada Attorney General Aaron D. Ford announced that Glories Powell, of Las Vegas, and her company, Revive Behavioral Health LLC, were sentenced for Medicaid Fraud.

The Honorable Judge Clark Newberry adjudicated Powell guilty of Intentional Failure to Maintain Adequate records, which is a Gross Misdemeanor. As part of her sentence, Powell was ordered to serve 364 days in jail (suspended). Additionally, Revive Behavioral Health LLC (Revive) was convicted of Submitting False Claims: Medicaid Fraud, which is a Category D felony. As part of the convictions, $642,000 in restitution was ordered.

The investigation of this case began after the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) received a referral from Nevada Medicaid regarding allegations of fraud. The investigation showed that from October 2020 through November 2021, Revive submitted claims to Medicaid asserting that specific services or quantiles of services were provided to various Medicaid recipients. The investigation further showed that servicing/rendering providers listed on Medicaid claims denied ever providing services to Medicaid recipients for Revive. Powell and Revive knew that these services were not actually provided and knew they did not have the documentation to substantiate the alleged services provided.

The MFCU investigates and prosecutes financial fraud by those providing healthcare services or goods to Medicaid patients. The MFCU also investigates and prosecutes instances of elder abuse or neglect. The Nevada MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant award. The remaining 25% is funded by the State of Nevada, MFCU. Anyone wishing to report suspicions regarding any of these concerns may contact the MFCU at 702-486-3420 or 775-684-1100.

This case was investigated by the Attorney General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit and was prosecuted by Senior Deputy Attorney General Steve Sidhu.
