

Looking for a new career?

In 2019, the State of Nevada Treasurer's Office created a database to assist the general public with financial aid information to pursue higher education. Most importantly, this aid is also available to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking to help expand their career options. The aid includes, but is not limited to:

Scholarships – Loans – Grants - Fellowships

Contact information is available for each entity listing their program. To view these opportunities, please visit the link listed below:
