Nevada Statistics

Domestic and sexual violence are very under reported crimes; collecting accurate data on incidents in general can be challenging. The Department of Justice states that only 1/3 of sexual assaults are ever reported to law enforcement¹. The Crime in Nevada Report, issued annually by the Department of Public Safety, captures crimes in the most thorough way. This report presents domestic violence reported to the police by county. The only form of sexual violence captured by the Crime in Nevada Report is rape. The statistics are collected statewide and are not broken down by county. Even with these efforts, we know that both domestic and sexual violence crimes are chronically underreported.

Domestic Violence

- According to the Uniform Crime Report², in Nevada in 2017:
 - There was a domestic violence offense every 17 minutes and 20 seconds.
 - There were 30,303 offenses
 - There were 13,677 temporary protection orders and 3,166 extended orders
- In 2017, amongst the 15 domestic violence programs throughout the state, there were a total of 63,561 victim contacts and 106,462 referrals provided.

Sexual Assault

- The only sexual violence crime that the Crime in Nevada Report covers is rape.
- In 2017 there were 1,731 committed rapes and 134 attempted rapes reported.
- The number of rapes increased from 2016 by 8.12%

The Violence Policy Center recently produced a report of 2015 data: When Men Murder Women. Nevada ranked second with a female homicide rate of 2.29 per 100,000. During the past twenty years, Nevada has ranked in the top five states for women murdered by men.³

While these numbers show just a glimpse of what is happening throughout our state, our direct service providers work on the frontline and provide a huge number of unreported services to victims and survivors in need. Every year, our national partner, the National Network to End Domestic Violence conducts a census day which tracks and highlights the amount of work and resources that local programs provide in just twenty-four hours. On September 13, 2017, all 15 of Nevada's domestic violence programs participated in the census. In just a short twenty-four hours across all fifteen programs, 462 victims were helped. Resources included emergency shelter, transitional housing, counseling, legal advocacy, and support groups. During that same day 175 hotline calls were answered, and 18 educational prevention trainings were conducted. Sadly, there were still 76 unfulfilled requests, mostly for emergency shelter.⁴

Since 2006 the Southern Nevada Human Trafficking Task Force, which operates out of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department has been working in collaboration with local, state and federal agencies, the faith-based community, victim service providers and non-governmental organizations to expose and reduce human trafficking in Clark County.

LVMPD is committed to proactively investigate, identify, apprehend and prosecute those engaged in the exploitation of children, women and men into the commercial sex trade.
