PLAZA HOTEL & CASINO, LAS VEGAS, NV

CONFERENCE AGENDA

DAY ONE: SEPTEMBER 23, 2026

11:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.	REGISTRATION Sierra Ballroom
-------------------------	---	--

12:00 P.M. – 12:30 P.M.	WELCOME RAGGIO AWARD PRESENTATIONS Sierra 8	Aaron D. Ford, Attorney General Mark Jackson, Douglas County District Attorney Christopher Hicks, Washoe County District Attorney

12:30 P.M. – 1:30 P.M.	ENSURING VICTIMS' RIGHTS DURING POST-CONVICTION PROCEEDINGS (1.0 general CLE credit) Sierra 8	Tamrah Jackson Chief Division of Parole and Probation, Department of Public Safety Jamie Trevino Ombudsman, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Human Trafficking Nevada Attorney General's Office Including your victim in your case process is important even after the judge imposes a sentence. This presentation will explain why lack of updated victim information creates issues in the post-conviction justice system. It will review the Victim's Bill of Rights, (Marsy's Law) and related statutes. IT will also provide locations where victim information

1:30 P.M. – 3:00 P.M.	BEHIND THE SCREEN, AHEAD OF THE THREAT: MODERNIZING RESPONSES TO RURAL TECH-FACILITATED STALKING (1.5 general CLE credits) Sierra 8	Jennifer Landhuis Director Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center As technology rapidly changes and perpetrators of stalking find new ways to exploit these evolving technological advances, responders often struggle to understand how to comprehensively respond to digital crimes, especially in jurisdictions with limited resources. Agency policies and procedures, and understanding of changing technology, need to continually evolve to keep up. In addition, investigations of online abuse are often lengthy, and it is vital to support victims throughout the process for their own safety. This session highlights the intersection of technology, stalking, and online abuse, focusing on the many ways that perpetrators use technology to instill fear in and psychologically dominate their victims.

3:15 P.M. – 5:15 P.M.	WHERE AI FITS: USE CASES, TRUST, AND ADOPTION IN THE PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE (2.0 general CLE credit) Sierra 8	Jake Hill CEO and Co-Founder, Sift Labs Corp. AI can help prosecutors' offices search large bodies of law and policy, work through digital evidence, and automate routine tasks. This two-hour session shows how to find strong use cases, match each job to the right type of system, and decide what proof an office should require before relying on it. Drawing on lessons from the technology and financial services industries, the session also covers trust, data handling, confidentiality, and the CJIS questions offices should answer before adopting AI. Live demonstrations will show the difference between general AI and an assistant grounded in approved sources, how AI can work with digital evidence, and how an agent can complete a bounded task across several systems. Attendees will leave with a practical framework for finding a strong use case and taking the first steps to build, test, or adopt a solution in their office.

1:10 P.M. – 1:30 P.M.	PRESENTATION FROM VIDIZMO.AI Sierra 8
-----------------------	--	--

1:30 P.M. – 2:30 P.M.	WHEN FIGHTING FEELS FUTILE (1.0 AAMH CLE credit) Sierra 8	Dr. Alexis Kennedy Founder, Compassion Recharge Many high-performing advocates reach a point where the work they love starts to feel pointless. This is not weakness, and it's not burnout in the traditional sense. It's what happens when people who went into law to make a difference absorb repeated systemic defeats without adequate recovery. Drawing on the neuroscience of moral distress and stress physiology, this presentation gives your members a framework for understanding what is happening in their bodies and minds, and practical tools for rebuilding the resilience to keep going.

3:30 P.M. – 5:30 P.M.	SEEING TRUTH: AUTHENTICATING AND PRESENTING VISUAL EVIDENCE IN THE AGE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (2.0 ethics CLE credits) Sierra 8	Brian Carney, Esq. President, WIN Interactive, Inc. Michael Moore City Prosecutor, Wheat Ridge, Colorado Artificial intelligence is rapidly changing how visual evidence is created, analyzed, challenged, and presented in court. This program focuses on how lawyers can combine legal judgment, visual literacy, technical understanding, and ethical restraint to use emerging technologies to clarify the truth rather than distort it. The presentation examines how prosecutors can ethically use photographs, video, timelines, 3D reconstructions, demonstrative exhibits, and AI-assisted visualizations to communicate complex evidence clearly and persuasively while preserving authenticity, fairness, reliability, and admissibility. It also discusses how to deconstruct one's opponent's visuals to prevent inadmissible and false evidence from improperly influencing juries. The program explores the growing importance of visual literacy, the psychological power of "seeing is believing," and the risks posed by deepfakes, manipulated media, and AI-generated content. It addresses key evidentiary issues including admissibility of GenAI as well as the important distinction between demonstrative evidence and illustrative aids. The presentation also considers emerging uses of AI in litigation, and understanding how to present visual evidence in a manner that can withstand courtroom scrutiny.
