ATTACHMENT BB:	ADDENDUM SETTING FORTH SPECIFIC RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

6. CONSIDERATION. The parties agree that Pro Bono Counsel will provide all services identified in Section 5, Incorporated Documents at no cost to the State.

The State does not agree to reimburse Pro Bono Counsel for expenses unless otherwise specified in the incorporated attachments.

7. ASSENT. The parties agree that the terms and conditions listed on incorporated attachments of this Contract are also specifically a part of this Contract and are limited only by their respective order of precedence and any limitations specified.

8. CONTRACT TERMINATION.

A. Termination Without Cause. Regardless of any terms to the contrary, this Contract may be terminated upon written notice by mutual consent of both parties. Either party may unilaterally terminate this contract without cause by giving not less than thirty (30) days' notice in the manner specified in Section 4, Notice.

B. Winding Up Affairs Upon Termination. In the event of termination of this Contract for any reason, the parties agree that the provisions of this Section survive termination:

- 1) The parties shall account for and properly present to each other all claims for expenses, if any, and pay those which are undisputed. Neither party may withhold performance of winding up provisions solely based on nonpayment of expenses accrued up to the time of termination;

- 3) Pro Bono Counsel shall preserve, protect and promptly deliver into State possession all proprietary information in accordance with Section 18, State Ownership of Proprietary Information.

For purposes of an award of attorneys' fees to either party, the parties stipulate and agree that a reasonable hourly rate of attorneys' fees shall be one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) per hour.

10. LIMITED LIABILITY. The State will not waive and intends to assert available NRS Chapter 41 liability limitations in all cases. Contract liability of both parties shall not be subject to punitive damages.

11. FORCE MAJEURE. Neither party shall be deemed to be in violation of this Contract if it is prevented from performing any of its obligations hereunder due to strikes, failure of public transportation, civil or military authority, act of public enemy, accidents, fires, explosions, or acts of God, including without limitation, earthquakes, floods, winds, or storms. In such an event the intervening cause must not be through the fault of the party asserting such an excuse, and the excused party is obligated to promptly perform in accordance with the terms of the Contract after the intervening cause ceases.

12. INDEMNIFICATION AND DEFENSE. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Pro Bono Counsel shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend, not excluding the State's right to participate, the State from and against all liability, claims, actions, damages, losses, and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, arising out of any breach of the obligations of Pro Bono Counsel under this contract, or any alleged negligent or willful acts or omissions of Pro Bono Counsel, its officers, employees and agents. Pro Bono Counsel's obligation to indemnify the State shall apply in all cases except for claims arising solely from the State's own negligence or willful misconduct. Pro Bono Counsel waives any rights of subrogation against the State. Pro Bono Counsel's duty to defend begins when the State requests defense of any claim arising from this Contract.
13. INSURANCE. Unless expressly waived in writing by the State, Pro Bono Counsel must carry professional liability insurance. Pro Bono Counsel shall not commence work until it has provided evidence of insurance to the Contracting Agency.
14. COMPLIANCE WITH LEGAL OBLIGATIONS. Pro Bono Counsel shall procure and maintain for the duration of this Contract any state, county, city or federal license, authorization, waiver, permit qualification or certification required by statute, ordinance, law, or regulation to be held by Pro Bono Counsel to provide the services required by this Contract. Pro Bono Counsel shall provide proof of its compliance upon request of the Contracting Agency. Pro Bono Counsel will be responsible to pay all taxes, assessments, fees, premiums, permits, and licenses required by law.
15. WAIVER OF BREACH. Failure to declare a breach or the actual waiver of any particular breach of the Contract or its material or nonmaterial terms by either party shall not operate as a waiver by such party of any of its rights or remedies as to any other breach.
16. SEVERABILITY. If any provision contained in this Contract is held to be unenforceable by a court of law or equity, this Contract shall be construed as if such provision did not exist and the non-enforceability of such provision shall not be held to render any other provision or provisions of this Contract unenforceable.
17. ASSIGNMENT/DELEGATION. Pro Bono Counsel shall neither assign, transfer nor delegate any rights, obligations nor duties under this Contract without the prior written consent of the State.
18. STATE OWNERSHIP OF PROPRIETARY INFORMATION. Any data or information provided by the State to Pro Bono Counsel and any documents or materials provided by the State to Pro Bono Counsel during this Contract ("State Materials") shall be and remain the exclusive property of the State and all such State Materials shall be delivered into State possession by Pro Bono Counsel upon completion, termination, or cancellation of this Contract.
19. PUBLIC RECORDS. Pursuant to NRS 239.010, information or documents received from Pro Bono Counsel may be open to public inspection and copying. The State has a legal obligation to disclose such information unless a particular record is made confidential by law or a common law balancing of interests. Pro Bono Counsel may label specific parts of an individual document as "attorney-client privileged" or "confidential." The failure to so label any document that is released by the State shall constitute a complete waiver of any and all claims for damages caused by any release of the records.
20. CONFIDENTIALITY. Pro Bono Counsel shall keep confidential all information, in whatever form, produced, prepared, observed or received by Pro Bono Counsel to the extent that such information is confidential by law or otherwise required by this Contract.
21. PROPER AUTHORITY. The parties hereto represent and warrant that the person executing this Contract on behalf of each party has full power and authority to enter this Contract.
22. GOVERNING LAW: JURISDICTION. This Contract and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be governed by, and construed according to, the laws of the State of Nevada, without giving effect to any principle of conflict-of-law that would require the application of the law of any other jurisdiction. The parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of and venue in the First Judicial District Court, Carson City, Nevada for enforcement of this Contract, and consent to personal jurisdiction in such court for any action or proceeding arising out of this Contract.
23. ENTIRE CONTRACT AND MODIFICATION. This Contract and its integrated attachment(s) constitute the entire agreement of the parties and as such are intended to be the complete and exclusive statement of the promises, representations, negotiations, discussions, and other agreements that may have been made in connection with the subject matter hereof. Unless an integrated attachment to this Contract specifically displays a mutual intent to amend a particular part of this Contract, general conflicts in language between any such attachment and this Contract shall be construed consistent with the terms of this Contract. Unless otherwise expressly authorized by the terms of this Contract, no modification or amendment to this Contract shall be binding upon the parties unless the same is in writing and signed by the respective parties hereto and approved by the Office of the Attorney General. This Contract, and any amendments, may be executed in counterparts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Contract to be signed and intend to be legally bound thereby.

Scope of Work & Guidelines and Procedures

I. SCOPE OF WORK

Perry Law (“Pro Bono Counsel”) is retained by the State of Nevada (“State”), by and through the Office of the Attorney General (“OAG”), to provide pro bono legal services to the State to include legal analysis and guidance regarding the interplay between federal and state and local authority and any related matters.

Pro Bono Counsel shall provide strictly legal services to the State in connection with the Contract. The State is not relying on Pro Bono Counsel for any services other than legal services.

The State’s agreement with Pro Bono Counsel is non-exclusive. The State may engage other counsel, paid or pro bono, for legal services or any related matters.

The State will not pay for any costs or expenses incurred by Pro Bono Counsel in the provision of legal services to the State, unless the State provides prior written agreement to pay for an unusual litigation cost or expense to prevent an unusually harsh financial burden on pro bono counsel as provided in II.B., below.

II. PRO BONO COUNSEL GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

A. Introduction

The State of Nevada (“State”) is pleased that Pro Bono Counsel has agreed to represent the State pursuant to NRS 228.112–228.1127. See generally Contract for Pro Bono Legal Services (“Contract”). The following are Pro Bono Counsel Guidelines and Procedures (“Guidelines”) for providing pro bono legal services to the State.

B. Costs & Expenses

The relationship between a client and law firm must be a somewhat flexible one in order to respond to the idiosyncrasies of each matter in a manner that will best serve the client’s goals. The high cost of modern legal and expert services in both time and money requires that the relationship have a basic structure that is understood by both client and the law firm. As explained in the State Administrative Manual (“SAM”), “[i]t is the policy of the State of Nevada to limit and monitor costs associated with the hiring of professional and expert services.” SAM § 0116 (State Agencies, Boards, and Commissions with Independent Contracts for Outside Legal or Professional Services).¹ The parties have agreed that Pro Bono Counsel will provide legal services at no cost to the State and the State will not reimburse Pro Bono Counsel for any costs or expenses; however, the principal underlying SAM § 0116 is still applicable as the State may directly incur costs or expenses in the matter that is the subject of the Contract.

The OAG is willing to discuss deviations from these Guidelines if such deviations will further the chances for success in the matter or will prevent an unduly harsh financial burden on Pro Bono Counsel. The OAG must require, however, that any such deviation be approved by the OAG in advance.

¹ These Guidelines are intended to summarize and/or supplement the State’s policy under SAM § 0116 regarding contracts for outside legal services to a State agency. If a provision herein conflicts with SAM § 0116 or any other relevant State or OAG policy, then the relevant SAM or OAG policy controls.

Scope of Work & Guidelines and Procedures

C. General Conduct and Communications

The matter for which you have been retained will be supervised by the OAG's First Assistant Attorney General. The OAG has found it helpful to have one attorney designated as Pro Bono Counsel's principal contact with the First Assistant Attorney General. That "lead counsel" will work with the First Assistant Attorney General to decide what tasks need to be undertaken.

Unless other arrangements are agreed in advance, all pleadings, motions, and other papers prepared by Pro Bono Counsel should be submitted to First Assistant Attorney General in draft form for review and comment before servicing upon other parties or filing with the court. Please allow the First Assistant Attorney General sufficient time for review, generally two-to-three working days absent emergency circumstances.

All communications between Pro Bono Counsel and the OAG shall be marked "Confidential / Attorney-Client Privileged." All work product of Pro Bono Counsel shall be marked "Confidential / Privileged / Attorney Work Product" on each page.

All communications by Pro Bono Counsel with State personnel should be made through the First Assistant Attorney General since this will allow for better coordination and may help to hold down expenses. On occasion, it may be necessary to communicate directly with State personnel to obtain factual or technical information. Any such contacts may be made only with the prior approval of the First Assistant Attorney General. It is the responsibility of Pro Bono Counsel to advise the First Assistant Attorney General as soon as practicable of the nature and content of any direct communications. Copies of all correspondence and documents sent to State personnel must be sent contemporaneously to the First Assistant Attorney General.

It may be necessary on occasion for non-legal State personnel or for certain third parties (e.g., attorneys representing our insurers) to contact Pro Bono Counsel directly. It may not always be possible for the First Assistant Attorney General to participate in such communications. Accordingly, the OAG expects Pro Bono Counsel to extend to such individuals the same professional courtesies that you would extend to a member of the OAG. However, Pro Bono Counsel should undertake projects, research, and execution of strategy only upon the direction of the First Assistant Attorney General.

While Pro Bono Counsel will not discuss this representation without the OAG's written approval, the OAG acknowledges that Pro Bono Counsel conducts research and communications on a broad range of democracy and voting-related issues. Pro Bono Counsel may communicate to third parties including the public about such issues, including issues related to the subject matter of this representation, and may communicate publicly available information regarding the matter for which the State has engaged Pro Bono Counsel. This will be done consistent with Pro Bono Counsel's ethical obligations.

Notification of the OAG Regarding Significant Changes or Developments: Pro Bono Counsel must notify and consult with the OAG promptly regarding all significant developments related to the legal services provided under this contract or any potential new legal matters. SAM § 0116(1). Should litigation involving potential liability for the State be threatened, commence, or significantly change during the term of this contract, Pro Bono Counsel must immediately inform the OAG in writing. Id.

Work Product the Property of the State: All work product of Pro Bono Counsel resulting from the Contract are the exclusive property of the State. SAM § 0116(2). Upon completion, termination, or cancellation of the Contract, Pro Bono Counsel will surrender originals of all documents, including any work product in progress or draft form, objects, or other tangible items related to the work to the OAG. Contract §§ 8(B)(3), 18.

ATTACHMENT AA

Scope of Work & Guidelines and Procedures

D. Conflicts of Interest

Conflicts of interest must be disclosed to the OAG and waived in writing prior to beginning a matter. SAM § 0116(4). Prior to being retained, the OAG expects Pro Bono Counsel to investigate and resolve any potential conflicts of interest, including any “issue” conflicts of a more philosophic or policy-driven basis that may compromise the position(s) taken by the State. The OAG expects Pro Bono Counsel to promptly discuss these issues with General Counsel and the OAG will provide you with any additional information, if needed.

Pro Bono Counsel must be sensitive both to direct conflicts of interest that representation of the State and other clients poses, and to the less direct, but nevertheless serious, conflicts that may arise from the Pro Bono Counsel’s advocacy, on behalf of other clients, of positions conflicting with important State interests. Prior to engagement, Pro Bono Counsel should carefully review whether any conflicts of either type exist and, if so, bring those conflicts to General Counsel’s attention.

Although issue conflicts may not necessarily result in a disqualification of Pro Bono Counsel, the OAG expects to be consulted before Pro Bono Counsel accepts an engagement that will require the firm to advocate a position that may be adverse to a State legal interest or otherwise prejudicial to the State’s interests. The OAG in its sole discretion will, after consultation with Pro Bono Counsel, determine whether an impermissible State conflict exists, or whether other circumstances exist that would undermine the public’s confidence if your representation continued. Pro Bono Counsel’s acceptance of an engagement on a matter without written disclosure of any conflicts constitutes Pro Bono Counsel’s representation that it has conducted an appropriate conflict check and no conflict exists.

As the representation continues, the OAG expects that Pro Bono Counsel will bring to General Counsel’s immediate attention any change in the conflict review or inform the General Counsel of any activity which might be viewed as, or trigger, a conflict of interest.

E. Ethical Obligations

These Guidelines are not intended to interfere with Pro Bono Counsel’s ethical obligations, including the obligation to exercise independent legal judgment during the course of the representation, or to conflict with applicable federal or state laws, court rules, administrative rules, etc. At all times, Pro Bono Counsel will provide professional legal advice and services at the highest level expected of law firms providing legal services in Nevada and the representation will be performed in a professional manner consistent with the professional rules governing the legal profession. See Contract § 14.

F. Staffing

The State expects that staffing levels will be appropriate for the complexity of the issues and Pro Bono Counsel’s expertise.

ATTACHMENT AA
Scope of Work & Guidelines and Procedures

1. Attorneys

The OAG requires that one experienced lawyer have ultimate responsibility for staffing and other decisions for the matter. The lead counsel at the firm must identify, in advance, any other lawyers who will be working on the case and explain the role of each. Lead counsel should always be aware of who is working on the matter, personally approving all assignments, and should also be aware at all times of what work is being done and how much time is being spent. Lead counsel should ensure that all work is useful and done efficiently. Lead counsel is expected to review and be able to explain all of Pro Bono Counsel's time entries. Further, Lead counsel must ensure that any other lawyers who work on the case are informed of and follow these Guidelines.

Both parties recognize that the appointment of Pro Bono Counsel is personal in nature and does not extend to any law firm that Pro Bono Counsel is associated with.

2. Paralegals or Other Personnel

The appropriate use of paralegals or other personnel employed by Pro Bono Counsel is encouraged. However, Pro Bono Counsel must consult with General Counsel in advance before utilizing personnel who are not Pro Bono Counsel employees, such as contract lawyers or experts.

G. Billing Requirements

1. Hourly Billing Increments

All time records must represent the actual time required to perform the task or activity and must be kept in time increments of 1/10th of an hour or 6 minutes. NRS 228.1124(1); SAM § 0116(6).

2. Invoice Format, Timing of Billing, Email Submission

Pro Bono Counsel's billing invoices must include a chronological listing of professional services, the name of each timekeeper whose work is being billed, the dates of services, the number of hours expended by each timekeeper on each item, and a specific description of the work performed. This means each task or activity must be separately itemized showing the date a task was performed, the timekeeper performing the task, a descriptive explanation of the task performed, and the time spent on the specific task.² A copy of your internal computer printout may accompany the billing invoice if that is most convenient.

Pro Bono Counsel is generally expected to submit either monthly or quarterly invoices within 30 days of the conclusion of the billing period, absent the OAG's prior consent to a longer delay. All entries must reflect the work performed within the billing period or a reasonable time before the billing period.

Pro Bono Counsel's billing invoices must be submitted via email to the OAG's General Counsel (AGGeneralCounsel@ag.nv.gov).

H. Media Requests and Public Relations

Any media inquiry relating to the State, including the State's relationship with Pro Bono Counsel,

² See SAM § 0116(6) ("In every case all billings shall describe all work performed with particularity and by whom it was performed.") (emphasis added).

ATTACHMENT AA

Scope of Work & Guidelines and Procedures

should be referred to the First Assistant Attorney General immediately. Pro Bono Counsel should not make statements to the media regarding the State, OAG, or the matter which is the subject of the Contract without securing advanced approval.

The State is aware that many law firms engage in comprehensive marketing. The State does not permit Pro Bono Counsel to advertise or promote the fact of your relationship with the State in your marketing efforts, unless the OAG specifically agrees otherwise.

I. Closing

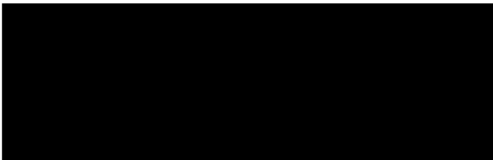

The OAG continually reviews and updates these Guidelines and welcomes any suggestions Pro Bono Counsel may have to limit and control costs while providing exceptional legal representation. Please acknowledge below the receipt and circulation of the Guidelines.

Please review these Guidelines carefully and promptly discuss any questions or concerns with General Counsel. If Pro Bono Counsel agrees to the terms of these Guidelines, please sign below and return a copy to General Counsel. Pro Bono Counsel may retain a copy for your files and the OAG will provide another copy via email along with the fully executed contract.

Once again, the OAG appreciates your agreement to represent the State on a pro bono basis and looks forward to the successful conclusion of this matter.
