

NEVADA PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

Strengths and Opportunities

Testimony of Gunita Singh

Staff Attorney

Reporters Committee

August 5, 2026

- For over 50 years:
- legal representation
- amicus support
- and other legal resources
- all at no cost

Did a gap in fire inspections put Alpine apartments at risk?

Autopsy records released to Review-
Journal after years of litigation

PERS secrecy bill based on unfounded fears: Our view

The Opinion of the RGJ Editorial Board

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

- An independent, impartial, and empowered ombuds-office
 - Provides a check on agency's discretion
 - Provides greater clarity on scope of law
 - Preserves judicial and party resources

A photograph of a police officer in a dark uniform, smiling and talking to two young women. The officer is standing in front of a white police car with blue and red lights on top. The woman on the left is wearing a white t-shirt with a colorful pattern and a purple waistband. The woman on the right is wearing a pink t-shirt and yellow pants. The background is slightly blurred, showing some buildings and trees.

BODY WORN CAMERA FOOTAGE

- Targeted redactions appropriate for sensitive content
- Skeptical of categorical exemptions for law enforcement personnel
- Transparency benefits everyone
- Tribune-Democrat case study

Body cam footage from 2025 Vybe Lounge shooting shows chaos at scene, police and emergency response

By Dave Sutor
dsutor@tribdem.com
Jun 13, 2026

The videos showed no physical or verbal altercations between police officers and people at the club, nor does any use of racial slurs exist in the recorded footage.

1 of 4

REPORTERS COMMITTEE

FOR FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

THANK YOU

Gunita Singh, Reporters Committee