Position Description

Criminal Investigators in the Attorney General's Investigations Division perform criminal investigations involving violations of federal and/or State laws pertaining to a specific program or regulatory area which includes, but is not limited to, Medicaid fraud, workers' compensation fraud, consumer protection, public integrity, human trafficking, missing children, financial fraud, alleged criminal offenses committed by State officers or employees, and all types of conflict of interest cases submitted by outside agencies, along with participating in multi-jurisdictional task forces comprised of officers from federal, State and local enforcement agencies. Incumbents possess a degree of knowledge and proficiency sufficient to perform work independently with little or no additional training.

There are multiple positions available in our Las Vegas office. The successful applicant will be expected to conduct fraud investigations involving violations of federal and/or state laws pertaining to a specific program or regulatory areas. Under general supervision, incumbents must have the ability to conduct interviews with cooperating individuals, witnesses and other law enforcement or State agency sources to obtain information regarding criminal investigations, case history, goals and objectives. Investigators must gather and preserve evidence, document information, utilize case management tools, develop case files and develop final reports and information and investigative reports prior to initiating criminal prosecution and must have the ability to conduct complex or difficult investigative assignments that may involve multiple criminal violations or suspects.
