QUALIFICATIONS

MINIMUM EDUCATION AND BACKGROUND: Graduation from an accredited four- year college or university and graduation from an accredited law school. Litigation experience commensurate with the position applied for.

PREFERRED EXPERIENCE:

Senior Deputy Attorney General: The successful applicant for this position will have at least four years of litigation experience, ideally including trial work and/or high-stakes litigation. The applicant will also have superior writing and oral advocacy skills. The applicant must have a desire to perfect his or her litigation expertise through work with the Head of Complex Litigation, the Solicitor General, and through internal and external training. This attorney will handle cases independently and oversee the work of others.

Deputy Attorney General: The successful applicant for this position must have litigation experience, good writing skills, and a demonstrated desire and ability to improve these skills through work in the Division. This attorney's primary duties include drafting legal briefs, legal research, and presenting argument in state and federal trial courts.

SKILLS REQUIRED: Applicants must possess skill in written and verbal communication and knowledge of state and federal court rules. Required skills also include planning, prioritizing and executing timelines without the need for supervision. Applicants must be highly professional, well-organized, and self-motivated.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS: This position requires mobility to work in a typical office setting and to use standard office equipment and to travel to offices and courts in various parts of the State. It also requires vision to read printed materials and a computer screen; and hearing and speech to communicate in person and over the telephone. The applicant must be able to speak in a clear and understandable manner, and to hear and respond to questions posed. Reasonable accommodation may be made for some of these physical demands for otherwise qualified individuals who require and request such accommodation.

Applicants must possess a valid Nevada driver's license at the time of appointment and for continuing employment and must be admitted to and in good standing with the State Bar of Nevada.
