Duty Station: Carson City or Las Vegas with travel.

Position Status: Exempt (FLSA); unclassified position entitled to standard state benefits; serves at the will of the Attorney General. Employment contingent upon successful background check.

Position Summary: This attorney position represents multiple agencies within the State of Nevada with an emphasis on representing agencies within the Department of Business and Industry. These agencies include, but are not limited to, the Nevada Transportation Authority, the Nevada Taxicab Authority, and the Nevada Financial Institutions Division. The representation provided by the attorneys in this Division routinely involves the prosecution of administrative cases, defending state agencies in litigation matters, fielding legal questions from public officials and agencies, and providing day-to-day legal advice and representation.

Minimum Education And Background: Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university and graduation from an accredited law school. Litigation experience commensurate with the position applied for. Applicants must possess a valid Nevada driver's license at the time of appointment and for continuing employment and must be admitted to and in good standing with the State Bar of Nevada.

Preferred Experience: Senior Deputy Attorney General: The successful applicant for this position will have at least four years of litigation experience, ideally including trial work and/or high-stakes litigation. The applicant will also have superior writing and oral advocacy skills. The applicant must have a desire to perfect his or her litigation expertise through work with the Chief of Business and Industry, and through internal and external training. This attorney will handle cases independently and oversee the work of others.

Deputy Attorney General: The successful applicant for this position must have litigation experience, good writing skills, and a demonstrated desire and ability to improve these skills through work in the division. This attorney's primary duties include drafting legal briefs, legal research, and presenting argument in state and federal trial courts.

Skills Required: Applicants must possess skill in written and verbal communication and knowledge of state and federal court rules. Required skills also include planning, prioritizing and executing timelines without the need for supervision. Applicants must be highly professional, well-organized, and self-motivated.

The State of Nevada is committed to Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action in recruitment of its employees and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion or belief, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, domestic partnership, genetic information.

Physical Demands: Mobility to work in typical office setting, use standard office equipment, and travel. Ability to read printed materials and computer screen; to hear and speak to communicate in person and virtually and over the telephone; to speak in clear and understandable manner. Reasonable accommodation available for some physical demands for otherwise qualified individuals upon request.

Benefits of Position Include:

- Membership on an experienced and dedicated public service team
- Once assigned a case, follow that case to completion
- Work largely independently once trained
- 2 years to pass Nevada bar if barred in another state
- Student loan forgiveness after 10 years
- Compressed work schedule option
- Work-life balance
- Retirement accrual after vesting
- Paid vacation, sick and family leave
- Medical/dental/life insurance

This announcement lists the major duties and requirements of the job and is not all-inclusive. A successful applicant is expected to develop job-specific skills and perform additional job-related duties as assigned.
