ATTORNEY GENERAL MASTO URGES NEVADANS TO APPLY FOR FREE, INDEPENDENT FORECLOSURE REVIEW BEFORE SEPTEMBER 30 EXTENDED DEADLINE

Las Vegas, NV – Nevada Attorney General Catherine Cortez Masto wants Nevadans whose homes were in foreclosure in 2009 or 2010 to know that the deadline to submit an application for a free, federal independent foreclosure review has been extended from July 31, 2012 to September 30, 2012.

Ordered by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, the independent foreclosure review will determine whether individuals suffered financial injury and should receive compensation or other remedy because of errors or other problems which occurred during the foreclosure process.

“Do not wait until the extended September 30 deadline to submit your application for a free and independent foreclosure review,” said Masto.

According to the OCC's recent report, as of May 31, 2012, 108,687 Nevadans who are eligible for the review received a mailing and 4,267 Nevadans submitted requests for review.

Information about Independent Foreclosure Review may appear in this format in advertisements and postcard notices that eligible borrowers recently received by mail.

More information, including edibility and online applications is available at www.independentforeclosurereview.com or 888-952-9105 (between 8 am and 10 pm (Eastern), Monday through Friday, and between 8 am and 5 pm Saturday).

All requests for Review Forms must be submitted online or postmarked no later than September 30, 2012. Not every finding will result in compensation or other remedy.

The AG's office originally issued a press release on May 31, 2012 announcing the program.

Anyone who wants to report an independent foreclosure review scam can contact the Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection Hotline at 702-486-3132 or visit <http://bit.ly/NVAGComplaintForms>.
